La Trobe University Sydney Campus agreement extended for 10 years

Global education services provider Navitas Limited (ASX: NVT) is pleased to announce that its agreement with La Trobe University for the Australian Campus Network (ACN) in Sydney has been renewed for 10 years under the new name "La Trobe University Sydney Campus" (LTUSC) and under materially similar terms and conditions.

LTUSC, established in 2001, has been operated by Navitas as a managed campus for La Trobe University since 2005 with the collaboration providing many benefits for students, the University and Navitas.

Under the renewed agreement, which will commence on 31 December 2013, LTUSC will be relocated to Navitas' Wynyard Green education precinct above Wynyard Green train station in the heart of Sydney. In addition the agreement will allow students studying at LTUSC to complete diplomas offered by Navitas' La Trobe Melbourne college at the Wynyard Green campus.

"We are delighted to be extending our partnership with La Trobe University in Sydney, allowing us to support another generation of international students to achieve their academic goals", said Navitas Group Chief Executive Officer, Rod Jones.

"We are also very pleased to be enhancing the agreement with a number of new opportunities such as access to the La Trobe Melbourne diplomas and the relocation of the campus to our education precinct."

"La Trobe University is excited about this new phase of our relationship with Navitas in Sydney and the strengthening of the connections between La Trobe Melbourne and the Sydney campus", said Professor John Dewar, Vice-Chancellor of La Trobe University."

"We look forward to continuing to work with Navitas to provide new opportunities for students to enjoy the advantages of a La Trobe University education."
