WorleyParsonsCord awarded Construction Contract for Pembina Pipeline Corporation's New Redwater Fractionator

WorleyParsons is pleased to announce the award of a contract for the general mechanical construction of a greenfield fractionation facility north of Pembina's existing Redwater NGL Fractionation Plant near the town of Redwater in Alberta, Canada. This project effectively duplicates the existing Redwater fractionation facility built in 1998.

WorleyParsonsCord, the construction group for WorleyParsons in Canada, will be responsible for execution of the project scope. The portion of the project that WorleyParsonsCord is responsible for is scheduled to be completed by July 2015 with estimated revenue to WorleyParsons from this contract is $68.5M CAD.

Andrew Wood, Chief Executive Officer of WorleyParsons stated: "WorleyParsons is excited to be working with Pembina on the Redwater Fractionation project. We look forward to furthering our relationship in working together to achieve the successful delivery of this project".
