Emeco Holdings Limited Successfully Completes US$335 Million Senior Secured Notes Offering

Emeco Holdings Limited (ASX:EHL) ('Emeco' or 'the Company') today announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary Emeco Pty Ltd, had completed their previously announced offering of US$335 million in aggregate principal amount of 9.875% Senior Secured Notes due 2019 in an offering to qualified institutional buyers in the United States pursuant to Rule 144A under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the 'Securities Act'), and to certain persons outside the United States in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The net proceeds of the Notes issue will be used to repay existing indebtedness outstanding under the USPP Notes and Australian senior bank facilities. Upon completion of the refinancing, Emeco will have access to a A$50 million secured multi-currency revolving credit facility. The new credit facility will provide funding for general corporate purposes.

The Notes, together with the new credit facility will provide Emeco with a more flexible and sustainable debt structure and gives the Company the required balance sheet capacity to respond to improving market conditions.

The Notes will pay interest on March 15 and September 15 each year, commencing on September 15 2014, at a rate of 9.875% per annum and will mature on March 15, 2019. The Notes are secured and are guaranteed by Emeco Holdings Limited and certain of its other subsidiaries.

This notice does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of any offer to buy, the Notes or any other securities. Any offer of the Notes will be made only by means of a private offering circular. The Notes are not being registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of Australia or any other jurisdiction. The Notes may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration under the Securities Act or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements.
