

ASX RELEASE

28 March 2014

Navitas AMEP Government contracts renewed

Global education services provider Navitas Limited (ASX: NVT) has been advised by the Department of Industry (DoI) that they intend to exercise the Commonwealth's Adult Migrant English Program (AMEP) contract extension options for all six NSW AMEP General Services contract regions, under similar terms and conditions.

The original contracts commenced on 1 July 2011 with the contract extensions taking effect from 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2017.

The Navitas NSW AMEP General Services Contract regions are as follows:

- Blacktown – Outer Western Sydney
- Central Western Sydney
- Fairfield/Cabramatta, Sydney
- Inner (including CBD), Eastern and Southern Sydney
- Inner Western Sydney and Canterbury Bankstown
- Liverpool, Sydney

Since commencing delivery of the AMEP in 1998, Navitas (formerly ACL) has worked in partnership with public, not-for-profit and welfare organisations to actively assist newly arrived migrants and former refugees with English language and settlement skills to effectively settle in Australia and participate fully in the community.

"We are very pleased to be able to continue to work with the Commonwealth and our partners to support Australia's newest migrants and refugees to settle and contribute to NSW and Australia," said Rod Jones, Group CEO of Navitas.

"As there are no material changes to the contracts there will be no major changes to client services and we look forward to continuing to provide a high standard of services as always."
