GOVERNMENT SECTOR WINS AND BUSINESS UPDATE

- Strategic contract wins with State and Federal Government
- Combined value of circa $10 million
- Demonstrates expanding capability in Government sector
- Expect to deliver strong result for FY14
- Well positioned to enter FY15 with confirmed work in hand

Leading contractor Decmil Group Limited (ASX: DCG) ("Decmil") has secured strategic Government contracts with wins from Main Roads Western Australia and the Australian Defence Force.

The civil contract comes as the Company continues to diversify and grow its key operating divisions and includes demolishing and replacing an existing bridge in Maylands, Western Australia.

Decmil will also upgrade an Australian Defence Force training facility in Port Hedland, Western Australia, including the removal of existing modular units and the installation of new units.

Decmil's Construction and Engineering business has undergone significant expansion over recent years and now includes key areas such as Government and broader civil work which are set to become a permanent fixture of the Decmil business.

Decmil Chief Executive Officer Scott Criddle said: "These project wins are significant achievements for Decmil as they represent firsts for the Company. The Company's strategy is to broaden the range of services that we can offer to our clients, with a key focus on the Government sector.

"Despite a challenging market, Decmil continues to be well placed to deliver a strong result for FY14 and to adapt to the current environment.

"Work in hand for FY15 is taking shape with some great opportunities on the horizon. The business is well placed for long term sustainable success."
