

Appointment of New Managing Director

Perth, Australia, 17 July 2014 – Elemental Minerals Ltd. (ASX: ELM) ('Elemental' or 'the Company') advises that they have appointed Mr John Sanders as the new Managing Director, replacing Mr Iain Macpherson who will continue as a non-executive director to allow a smooth transition and retain technical skills and achieve a level of continuity.

Mr Sanders previously worked with Elemental as General Manager and Executive Director between 2009 and 2012. During this time, Mr Sanders was integral to the development of the Sintoukola Project in the Republic of Congo ('Project'), was a key member of the Elemental team and was instrumental in the rapid progress of the Company.

The Board is delighted that Mr Sanders has agreed to re-join the Company as the Managing Director given his significant knowledge and experience in the Project.

Mr Sanders has extensive experience totalling over 30 years in African exploration and mining projects. Prior to his previous association with Elemental, he held the positions of Vice President Exploration for UraMin, Chief Executive Officer of Niger Uranium, Regional Exploration Manager East and West Africa at Anglogold Ashanti, Country Manager Anglo Gold Mali and Country Manager Anglo American Botswana.

Full details of Mr Sanders' remuneration will be disclosed when finalised.

About Elemental Minerals

Elemental Minerals Limited (ASX: ELM) is an advanced mineral exploration and development company whose primary asset is the 97%-owned Sintoukola Potash Project in the Republic of Congo. ELM completed an advanced Pre-Feasibility Study on its Kola Project in September 2012 and was awarded a mining license and an environmental license in August 2013. The Sintoukola Project has the potential to be among the world's lowest-cost potash producers and its strategic location near the Congolese coast of Central West Africa offers a transport cost advantage to key Brazilian and Asian fertilizer markets. Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains statements that are "forward-looking". Generally, the words "expect," "potential", "intend," "estimate," "will" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. By their very nature, forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any of our forward-looking statements, which are not guarantees of future performance. Statements in this news release regarding the Company's business or proposed business, which are not historical facts, are "forward looking" statements that involve risks and uncertainties, such as resource estimates and statements that describe the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, including words to the effect that the Company or management expects a stated condition or result to occur. Since forward-looking statements address future events and conditions, by their very nature, they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results in each case could differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements.

Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made.
