WorleyParsons Kazakhstan awarded an EPCM services contract by Chevron
Munaigas for Samal Wind Park Project

WorleyParsons Kazakhstan has been selected to provide engineering, procurement and construction management (EPCM) services for Chevron Munaigas' Samal Wind Park Project.

The project includes the development of a 51.3MW wind-powered electrical generation facility and enabling works. The project will be executed by the Almaty office of WorleyParsons Kazakhstan with the support of the Global Renewables group.

"We are pleased to be working with Chevron as they build one of the first wind parks in the country, bringing new technologies to diversify Kazakhstan's economy" said Andrew Wood, Chief Executive Officer of WorleyParsons.
