Leadership team changes

Auckland Airport has announced today the departure of two long-serving members of the company's Leadership Team.

Adrian Littlewood, Auckland Airport's Chief Executive, says, "Following a review of our company's direction and strategy, including executive remuneration, our Chief Financial Officer, Simon Robertson, and our General Manager of Corporate Affairs and Company Secretary, Charles Spillane, have decided to leave Auckland Airport today after many years of valuable service."

"I want to thank both Simon and Charles for their significant contributions to the company and to New Zealand travel, trade and tourism. I also want to wish them all the very best for the future."

"I have asked Phil Neutze to be our Acting Chief Financial Officer, Justine Hollows to be our Acting Company Secretary, and Anna Cassels-Brown to be our Acting General Manager of Corporate Affairs," says Mr Littlewood.
