

20 August 2015

The Companies Officer
ASX Limited
2 The Esplanade
Perth WA 6000

Dear Sir,

REVISED SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 12.10, Fortescue Metals Group Limited (the Company) advises that it has amended its Securities Trading Policy.

The revised policy incorporates amendments arising out of ASX's updated Guidance Note 27: Trading Policies.

A copy of the revised policy, which takes effect today, is attached and is also available on the Company's website at www.fmgl.com.au.

Yours sincerely
Fortescue Metals Group Ltd

Ian Wells
Company Secretary

Media Contact:
Luke Forrestal
0427 938 094
mediarelations@fmgl.com.au

Fortescue Metals Group Limited

Securities Trading Policy

August 2015

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SCOPE OF THIS POLICY 2

DEFINED TERMS 2

OUTLINE OF INSIDER TRADING PROHIBITIONS 4

EXAMPLES OF "INSIDE INFORMATION" 5

COMPANY'S POLICY ON DEALING IN COMPANY SECURITIES..... 6

NO HEDGING OF UNVESTED ENTITLEMENTS 9

NO SHORT TERM DEALING OR SHORT SELLING 9

NOTIFICATION BY DIRECTORS..... 9

CONSEQUENCES OF BREACH..... 10

QUESTIONS / FURTHER INFORMATION 10

SCOPE OF THIS POLICY

This Policy outlines:

1. when directors, employees, contractors and consultants of the Company (together Persons) may deal in Company Securities;
2. when Designated Persons are permitted to deal in Company Securities; and
3. procedures to reduce the risk of insider trading.

Staff are encouraged to be long-term holders of the Company's securities. However, it is important that care is taken in the timing of any acquisition or sale of such securities.

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure directors, employees and other relevant persons do not abuse access to inside information about the Company or any other company. Ultimately, however, it is the responsibility of the person to ensure that none of his or her dealings could constitute insider trading.

This Policy imposes restrictions on dealing in Company Securities in addition to those imposed by law under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act). Nothing in this Policy sanctions a breach of any relevant legal or regulatory requirements and failure to comply with this Policy will subject the person to internal disciplinary procedures and could lead to civil or criminal investigations or penalties.

DEFINED TERMS

In this Policy:

4. ASIC means the Australian Securities & Investments Commission.
5. ASX means the Australian Securities Exchange.
6. Closed Season means each of:
 - (a) the period from the end of the financial year or half financial year to the business day after the time of release of the annual or half year results; and
 - (b) the period from the end of the September quarter or March quarter to the business day after the time of release of the September or March quarterly reports.
7. Company means Fortescue Metals Group Limited and its subsidiaries.
8. Company Securities includes:
 - (a) any shares in the Company;
 - (b) any other securities issued by the Company such as debentures, debt notes and options;

- (c) derivatives and other financial products created by the Company or created or issued by third parties in relation to the Company's shares, debentures, options or other securities able to be traded on ASX or another stock exchange; and
 - (d) securities of any other company or entity that may be affected by inside information (such as a joint venture partner of the Company, another party involved in a corporate transaction with the Company or a contractor or shareholder of the Company).
9. To deal and dealing includes:
- (a) subscribing for, purchasing or selling Company Securities or entering into an agreement to do any of those things;
 - (b) advising, procuring or encouraging another person (including a family member, friend, associate, colleague, family company or family trust) to trade in Company Securities; and
 - (c) entering into agreements or transactions which operate to limit the economic risk of a person's holdings in Company Securities.
10. Designated Persons means:
- (a) a person having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company, directly or indirectly, including any director;
 - (b) an employee invited to participated in the Executive and Senior Staff Incentive Plan; and
 - (c) any person who, from time to time, is notified by the Company that they are a Designated Person.
11. Notification means a notification in writing (including by email) that includes:
- (a) the name and position of the Designated Person making the Notification;
 - (b) the nature of the proposed dealing and the number and class of Company Securities affected; and
 - (c) a confirmation that the Designated Person is not in possession of price sensitive information about the Company that is not generally available to the market.
12. Prohibited Period means any:
- (a) Closed Season; and
 - (b) other blackout period declared by the Board from time to time.

13. Related Parties, in relation to a Person, includes each:
- (a) immediate family member of the Person; and
 - (b) company, trust or entity which is controlled by the Person or an immediate family member of the Person.
14. Short Term Dealing includes dealing in Company Securities within a 3 month period, but does not include the sale of Company Securities after they have been acquired through the conversion of a security, for example the exercise of an option, or in accordance with the Executive and Senior Staff Incentive Plan or other Company incentive scheme.

OUTLINE OF INSIDER TRADING PROHIBITIONS

15. If a person possesses "inside information" in relation to the Company, the person must not:
- (a) deal in Company Securities in any way; nor
 - (b) directly or indirectly communicate the information, or cause the information to be communicated, to another person if the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would, or would be likely to, deal in Company Securities in any way or procure a third person to deal in Company Securities in any way.
16. A person is in possession of "inside information" in relation to the Company in circumstances where:
- (a) the person possesses information that is not generally available and, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities; and
 - (b) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is not generally available and, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities.
17. A reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly acquire securities in deciding whether or not to deal in Company Securities in any way. It does not matter how the Designated Person came to have the inside information.
18. Information is "generally available" if it:
- (a) consists of a readily observable matter;
 - (b) has been made known in a manner that would, or would be likely to, bring it to the attention of persons who commonly invest in any of the classes of securities issued by the Company and, since it was made known, a reasonable period for it to be disseminated among those persons has elapsed. That is, information will be "generally available" if it has been released to ASX or published in an annual report or prospectus or similar document and a reasonable period of time has elapsed after the information has been disseminated in one of these ways; or

- (c) consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information referred to in paragraph 18(a) of this Policy or information made known as mentioned in paragraph 18(b) of this Policy, or both.

The financial impact of the information is important, but strategic and other implications can be equally important in determining what amounts to inside information. The definition of "information" is broad enough to include rumours, matters of supposition, intentions of a person (including the Company) and information which is not definite enough to warrant public disclosure.

- 19. A person may obtain inside information in relation to another company. For example, in the course of negotiating a transaction with the Company, another company might provide confidential information about itself. The prohibition on insider trading is not restricted to information affecting Company Securities. The persons in possession of the inside information must not deal in securities of those other companies.
- 20. A person who deals in the Company Securities while in possession of "inside information" or communicates that information in the circumstances described in paragraph 15(b) of this Policy will be liable to both civil and criminal penalties.
- 21. Criminal penalties include substantial fines, imprisonment or both. Civil penalties also attract substantial fines and may result in court ordered compensation payments to persons who suffer loss or damage as a result of the insider trading. The Company may also be liable for significant fines if a director or employee engages in insider trading.

EXAMPLES OF "INSIDE INFORMATION"

- 22. Examples of information which may be considered to be "inside information" include the details relating to the items listed below (this is not an exhaustive list):
 - (a) drilling results, mining exploration results, production figures and the like;
 - (b) prospective financial information;
 - (c) unpublished announcements;
 - (d) proposed changes in capital structure, including share issues, rights issues and the redemption of securities;
 - (e) impending mergers, acquisitions, reconstructions, takeovers, etc;
 - (f) significant litigation and disputes;
 - (g) significant changes in operations or proposed changes in the general

character or nature of the business of the Company or its subsidiaries;

- (h) cashflow information;
- (i) management restructuring or Board changes;
- (j) an entity proposing to buy, or a security holder proposing to sell, a substantial number of Company Securities;
- (k) industry issues that may have a material impact on the Company;
- (l) decisions on significant issues affecting the Company by regulatory bodies in Australia or other relevant jurisdictions;
- (m) allegations of any breach of the law or other regulatory requirements by the Company;
- (n) major or material purchases or sales of assets;
- (o) proposed or new significant contracts;
- (p) a proposed dividend or change in dividend policy;
- (q) an event which could have a material impact (either positively or negatively) on production or profits (for example, disconnection or shut-in of production, a significant safety or environmental incident);
- (r) any information required to be disclosed to ASX under its continuous disclosure rules; and
- (s) any possible claim against the Company or other unexpected liability.

COMPANY'S POLICY ON DEALING IN COMPANY SECURITIES

23. General: Persons should note the following general principles:

- (a) Persons must comply with the insider trading provisions of the Corporations Act at all times;
- (b) Persons who possess "inside information" must not deal or procure dealing in Company Securities;
- (c) Persons must avoid, and be seen to avoid, actual or potential conflict between their personal interest and the interests of the Company and other security holders in a manner which is in breach of the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules or other legal obligations; and
- (d) Persons must not derive personal advantage from information which is not generally available and which has been obtained by reason of their connection with the Company in a manner which is in breach of the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules or other legal obligations.

24. Dealing in Company Securities during Prohibited Periods: Designated Persons must refrain from dealing in Company Securities during Prohibited Periods.

A Designated Person who is not in possession of inside information in relation to the Company may be given written clearance to sell or otherwise dispose of (but not purchase) Company Securities during a Prohibited Period, where the Designated Person is in severe financial hardship, is required by law to transfer the Company Securities or where other exceptional circumstances exist. Where clearance is given, the Designated Person must trade the Company Securities within 7 days of receiving clearance.

If a Designated Person wishes to sell or otherwise dispose of Company Securities during a Prohibited Period, that person must submit a Notification to the Company Secretary and obtain the prior written consent of the Chairman (or in the case of the Chairman, prior written consent of the Chair of the Audit Committee). The Designated Person must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Chairman or the Chair of the Audit Committee (as applicable) that he or she is in severe financial hardship or that his or her circumstances are otherwise exceptional.

25. Dealing in Company Securities outside of the Prohibited Periods: Outside of the Prohibited Periods, it is recommended that Designated Persons trade during the times referred to in paragraph 26 below. In any event, Designated Persons may only deal in Company Securities in accordance with the procedures in this paragraph 25.

Chairman: The Chairman must not deal in Company Securities without first submitting a Notification to the Chair of the Audit Committee and the Company Secretary before commencing the transaction and must trade within seven days of submitting the Notification. The Chairman must subsequently notify the Company Secretary in writing of any trade that has occurred.

Directors: Directors (other than the Chairman) must not deal in Company Securities without first submitting a Notification to the Chairman and the Company Secretary before commencing the transaction and must trade within seven days of submitting the Notification. The director must subsequently notify the Company Secretary in writing of any trade that has occurred.

Other Designated Persons: Designated Persons other than the Chairman and directors must not deal in Company Securities without first submitting a Notification to the Company Secretary before commencing the transaction and must trade within seven days of the Notification.

26. Recommended times for trading: Subject to the Prohibited Periods referred to in paragraphs 12 and 24 of this Policy, the recommended times (in terms of avoiding suggestions of insider trading) for any Designated Person to deal in Company Securities are in the 4 week period commencing the business day after the:

- (a) holding of the Company's Annual General Meeting or any other meeting of shareholders;
- (b) release by the Company of its half yearly results announcement to ASX;
- (c) release by the Company of its full year results announcement to ASX;

- (d) release of a prospectus or other disclosure document offering securities in the Company;
- (e) release by the Company of any quarterly report to ASX; or
- (f) release by the Company of any information that is not generally available and if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company Securities, provided that such time is not a Prohibited Period and the Designated Person is not in possession of any inside information relating to the Company or its securities that is not generally available and if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities.

27. Dealings not subject to the provisions of this Policy: Subject to the insider trading provisions of the Corporations Act, Directors and employees of the Company may at any time:

- (a) subscribe for securities offered under a disclosure document (e.g. a prospectus);
- (b) acquire the Company's ordinary shares by conversion of securities giving a right of conversion to ordinary shares - but may not deal with any of the shares received upon conversion other than in accordance with this Policy and the insider trading provisions;
- (c) acquire Company Securities under a bonus issue, rights issue or other offer made to all holders of securities of the same class;
- (d) acquire Company Securities under a dividend reinvestment, or top-up plan, that is available to all holders of securities of the same class;
- (e) acquire Company Securities under a Company sponsored share plan where such securities are purchased by an independent Trustee and on an agreed period purchase basis;
- (f) acquire, or agree to acquire, options under a Company share option plan;
- (g) acquire, or agree to acquire, rights under a Company performance share plan;
- (h) exercise options acquired under a Company share option plan (but may not sell all or part of the shares received upon exercise of the options other than in accordance with these procedures);
- (i) deal where the beneficial interest in the relevant security does not change;
- (j) invest or trade in units of a fund, or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in Company Securities) where the assets of the fund, or other scheme, are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- (k) dispose of Company Securities by acceptance of a takeover offer, scheme of arrangement or equal access buy-back; and

- (l) invest in a scheme or arrangement (other than a scheme investing only in Company Securities) where the assets of the scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party.
28. Dealings by Related Parties: A Designated Person must use reasonable endeavours to ensure that his or her Related Parties are aware of this Policy. If a Designated Person may not deal in Company Securities, he or she must take all reasonable and necessary steps to prevent any dealing in Company Securities by Related Parties unless the Designated Person has complied with this Policy on behalf of that Related Party in respect of the proposed dealing.

NO HEDGING OF UNVESTED ENTITLEMENTS

29. A Designated Person must not enter into transactions which would have the effect of hedging or transferring the risk of any fluctuation in the value of:
- (a) any unvested entitlement to Company Securities; or
 - (b) Company Securities which are vested but still subject to a holding lock.

This would include acquiring derivatives or options in relation to Company Securities.

An unvested entitlement in Company Securities would include equity rights which are still subject to time and/or performance hurdles.

NO SHORT TERM DEALING OR SHORT SELLING

30. Notwithstanding any provision in this Policy, a Designated Person must not:
- (a) engage in Short Term Dealing in Company Securities;
 - (b) short sell Company Securities; or
 - (c) knowingly allow their Company Securities to be used for short selling.

NOTIFICATION BY DIRECTORS

31. A director is required to notify the Company Secretary if there is any change in the director's relevant interest in securities of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company.
32. The director must notify the Company Secretary in writing of the requisite information for the Company Secretary to make the necessary notifications to ASIC and ASX of the change as required by the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules. The director must provide the Company Secretary with the written notification as soon as possible after the change occurs and, in any event, with sufficient notice to allow the Company Secretary to make the necessary notifications within 5 business days after the change occurs.

CONSEQUENCES OF BREACH

33. Breaches of this Policy may damage the Company's reputation in the investment community and undermine confidence in the market for Company Securities.
34. Accordingly, breaches will subject the Person to internal disciplinary procedures and could lead to civil or criminal investigations or penalties.

QUESTIONS / FURTHER INFORMATION

35. If you have any questions or need further information on how to comply with this Policy, please contact the Company Secretary.