Introduction

The Board and Management of St Barbara are committed to maintaining high standards of ethics, integrity and statutory compliance in all Company dealings.

In addition, important governance information including details on the composition of the Board and Executive Management, Board related charters, and significant Company policies are available on the Company's website at www.stbarbara.com.au/profile/governance/.

Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The role of the Board is to protect and enhance shareholder value, approve the Company's strategic direction, provide Management with guidance and oversight and foster a culture of good governance.

In performing its role, the Board at all times endeavours to act:

- a) in a manner designed to achieve business success and create and continue to build long term value for shareholders;
- b) recognising its overriding responsibility to act honestly, fairly and ethically in serving the interests of the Company, its shareholders, employees, and as appropriate, other stakeholders; and
- c) in accordance with the duties and obligations imposed upon Directors by the Board Charter (see below) and the Company's Constitution and applicable law.

The responsibilities of the Board are described in the Board Charter available at www.stbarbara.com.au/profile/governance/. Management is responsible for the day to day operation of the Company which it undertakes within a framework of specific delegated authority and approval limits.

The Board undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a person as a Director, or putting forward to shareholders a candidate for election as a Director. The company has a written agreement with each Director and senior executive.

The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, through the Chairman, on all governance matters and the proper functioning of the Board. All Directors have a right of access to the Company Secretary. The Company Secretary is appointed and dismissed by the Board.

Diversity

The Company's Diversity Policy is available on the Company's website at www.stbarbara.com.au/profile/governance/. The Policy is reviewed by the Board periodically to ensure it remains appropriate and is operating effectively.

The measurable gender diversity objectives endorsed by the Board for the 2016 financial year¹, and the progress made against those objectives during the 2015 financial year, are as follows:

Board Performance Review

The Board informally reviewed its own performance during the 2015 financial year in conjunction with an assessment of its own composition and capabilities. Formal performance reviews have been conducted in recent years. The review and assessment were co-ordinated by the Chairman. Directors concluded that the Board and its Committees are functioning well and there were no Board performance issues which required any remedial action. The Board renewal process, which commenced in 2012, concluded during 2015 with the appointments of David Moroney and Kerry Gleeson as Non-Executive Directors in March and May 2015 respectively, and the subsequent retirement of long-serving Non-Executive Chairman Colin Wise and Non-Executive Director Doug Bailey at the end of June 2015.

Performance of Senior Executives

The performance of each senior executive is formally assessed each year under the Company's performance appraisal system and reviewed by the Board. Further details, including the linkage to remuneration, are contained in the Remuneration Report, which is included in the Annual report and available at www.stbarbara.com.au/investors/annual-reports/.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to add valueIndependence

It is Board policy that a majority of Non-Executive Directors, including the Chairman, should be independent and free of any relationship that may conflict with the interests of the Company.

Each Director is required to provide advance notice of any actual or potential conflict of interest relating to business planned to be considered by the Board. Directors who have declared a potential or real conflict of interest on a particular issue may be excluded from all relevant Board deliberations, and from voting on that issue.

In assessing the independence of Directors, the Board considers the materiality of any transactions during the year relative to both the Company and any third party with which a Director is associated.

All current Non-Executive Directors, including the Chairman, are considered to be independent. No Directors have an interest, position, association or relationship that may cause doubts regarding their independence. The Managing Director and CEO is the only Executive Director on the Board.

Composition of the Board of Directors

The Board periodically reviews its own composition, skill set and capability. The Board considers that the size, nature, scope and location of the Company's operations requires a mix of skills broadly technical, financial and commercial in nature and with a focus on natural resources. Specifically those skills should include governance, capital management and capital markets, mining and exploration, health, safety and environment, strategic planning, remuneration and policy. In seeking to ensure that the Board composition reflects and meets those needs, a broad diversity among directors is also sought based on age, gender and professional background, qualifications and experience.

Having regard to the importance and relative infrequency of Board changes, there is no Nomination Committee as such but rather, the Board retains the nomination responsibility for itself.

The Board assesses candidates against a range of specific criteria, including their experience, background, qualifications and professional skills, potential conflicts of interest, the requirement for independence and the existing collective skill sets of the Board.

The Company has an induction program for new Directors, and encourages and supports Directors to maintain appropriate professional development.
