FATALITY AT PAULSENS GOLD MINE

It is with deep regret that Northern Star Resources (ASX: NST) advises that a contractor working at its Paulsens Gold Mine in WA became seriously unwell and passed away early this morning.

Northern Star Directors, management and staff extend their deepest sympathy and condolences to the man's family, friends and colleagues at this tragic time.

Northern Star is assisting the relevant authorities with the investigation underway.

Northern Star has temporarily ceased operational activity on site.

No other workers were involved in the incident.
