Toni Laming to leave Mighty River Power

Following the announcement of changes to Mighty River Power's leadership team the former GM Strategy & Communications, Toni Laming, has decided to pursue other opportunities.

The changes announced on December 11 established two new roles on the lead team, Chief Marketing Officer and GM Digital Services, reporting to Chief Executive, Fraser Whineray. The previous roles of GM Customer and GM Strategy & Communications were disestablished.

Mr Whineray said Ms Laming had opted not to seek either of the new roles and thanked her for her contribution at Mighty River Power. She will leave the Company on 18 December 2015.

Mighty River Power is a company with a great New Zealand heritage, and a leader in this country's electricity industry with the flagship retail brand Mercury Energy and other specialty brands. Every year the hydro and geothermal power stations operated by Mighty River Power generate enough renewable electricity for about 1 million New Zealand homes.

Mighty River Power was listed on the New Zealand Stock Exchange (NZX: "MRP") and the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX: "MYT") in May 2013 and has New Zealand's largest shareholder base of nearly 100,000, alongside the Crown as majority owner.
