Escrow.com is easy to use

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying an article on the 'For Dummies' website. The URL in the address bar is <http://www.dummies.com/how-to/content/how-to-protect-highcost-ebay-transac>. The page header features the 'FOR DUMMIES' logo with the tagline 'Making Everything Easier' and 'A Wiley Brand'. Social media icons for Facebook, Google+, Twitter, YouTube, and News are visible. A search bar is present on the right. The navigation menu includes 'See All Topics', 'Internet & Social Media', 'eBay', 'Buy on eBay', and 'Protection'. Three featured articles are shown: 'What Does eBay Motors Vehicle Purchase Protection Cover?', 'What Does PayPal Buyer Protection Cover?', and 'Avoid These eBay Trading Violations'. The main article title is 'How to Protect High-Cost eBay Transactions with Escrow.com'. The text explains that Escrow.com, eBay's official escrow service, allows buyers to proceed with transactions over $2000, which is beyond the upper limit of PayPal buyer protection. It states that buyers gain peace of mind by using escrow because they know the transaction will be completed securely and easily. The article also mentions that as a new user, one must register to use the service and that listings should indicate the use of escrow. An advertisement for 'Health - Seasonal Depression' is visible on the right side of the page, featuring a video player with a pink tulip background and a 'Seekin' logo.

How to Protect High-Cost eBay Transactions with Escrow.com

Escrow.com, eBay's official escrow service, makes it more comfortable for an eBay buyer to proceed with transactions over $2000, which is the upper limit for PayPal buyer protection. Buyers gain peace of mind by using escrow because they know the transaction will be completed securely and easily.

As a new user, you or your buyer must register to use the service. When you want to offer escrow as a payment option in one of your listings, be sure to indicate such on the Sell an Item form so that it appears on the listing page. After the sale closes, the seller should initiate the escrow by going to the Escrow.com site or to eBay.

Escrow.com is the only licensed, bonded & audited secure online solution that protects both the buyer and the seller with a simple, 5-step trust process

1 — 2 — 3 — 4 — 5

Buyer and seller agree to terms

Both parties agree to terms of the transaction, which includes a description of the merchandise, sale price, number of days for the buyers inspection, and any shipping information

Buyer pays Escrow.com

The buyer submits funds via available payment options. Escrow.com verifies the payment. Processing time varies by payment method.

Seller ships merchandise

Upon payment verification, the seller is authorized to ship merchandise to the buyer and submit tracking information. Escrow.com verifies that the buyer receives the shipment.

Buyer accepts the merchandise

The buyer has set a number of days for merchandise inspection and the option to accept or reject the merchandise;

Escrow.com pays the seller

Upon buyer's approval of merchandise or expiration of inspection period, Escrow.com pays the seller by the method selected by the seller. The transaction is them complete.

The forum header includes the PayPal logo, the text "Community Help Forum", and navigation links for "PayPal Home", "PayPal Help", and a "Sign in" button. The breadcrumb trail indicates the thread is in the "UK Community" > "Managing my account" > "Access and security" > "Car Purchase Scam" section. A search bar and an "Ask the Community" button are visible. The thread itself is titled "Car Purchase Scam" and is posted by user "gardendesigner" on 09-06-2013 at 04:13 PM. The post content describes a suspicious buyer on eBay who wants to use PayPal and a courier to collect the car. The user has 6 kudos and 2 posts. A red circle highlights the title and the first part of the post text. On the right side, there are sections for "New Solutions" with links like "Suspicious message from a 'paypal mail'" and "My Account Suddenly Became Chinese.. and locked !!", and a "Top Tags" section.

Car Purchase Scam

I have become suspicious about a buyer for our car we had for sale on ebay 'Jodie Williams' is the email name requesting that the sale only be undertaken through paypal and that a courier would collect the car. They have asked no details about the car other than agreeing to pay the full price. Having become suspicious I searched the internet and found a few threads relating to this person 'wjodie401'. I think it is part of the same scam others have mentioned, so please beware

In fact, eBay doesn't think so either,
"Important: Only use Escrow.com"

The screenshot shows the eBay website's help page for "Using escrow services for eBay Motors vehicle purchases". The browser address bar shows "http://www.ebay.com". The page header includes navigation links like "Hi! Sign in or register", "Daily Deals", "Gift Cards", "Sell", "Help & Contact", and "BE MOVED". The main navigation bar features the eBay logo, a search bar, and a "Search" button. The breadcrumb trail is "Home > Help > Payment & shipping > Paying for items > Using escrow services for eBay Motors vehicle purchases".

The "Help" section is titled "Browse help" and includes a sidebar with categories: "Searching & researching", "Bidding & buying", "Selling & seller fees", "Payment & shipping" (with sub-links for "Paying for items", "Receiving payment", and "Packing & shipping items"), "Feedback", and "Membership & account".

The main content area is titled "Using escrow services for eBay Motors vehicle purchases". It features a search bar for help pages and a "Search" button. Below this, there is a section "In this article" with a list of links: "Use caution when considering an escrow service", "Adding escrow to a vehicle listing", "The escrow process", and "International escrow services approved by eBay". A red circle highlights the text "Important: Only use Escrow.com." which is followed by a paragraph explaining that Escrow.com helps keep buyers and sellers safe from fraud by holding money until terms are met. It also states that Escrow.com is a licensed and regulated company and the only escrow service for eBay transactions.

Other sections on the page include "Contact us" with a "Contact us" button, "Ask eBay members" with a link to the "Answer Center", and "Related help topics" with a link to "Choosing a payment method (for buyers)".

Project Description

We need a teaser site created for our conference where we will have a video running in the background. The sound will be disabled but the website visitor should be able to enable the sound as well. We will need call to actions to either sign up to the waiting list which will be connected to our Mailchimp or to buy tickets. We use Tito (ti.to) for our ticket sales.

We have branding guidelines that you can follow for the design and we will share that with suitable candidates. You can look at our current site to have an idea of the branding.

Current site: <http://www.arctic15.com/>

This teaser site that we need now will not include as much, this is just for you to have an idea of the branding guidelines.

Deadline: November 6th

Please place your bid as accurately as possible and let me know what questions you have for me in the proposal. Please include one or two websites which you have created that have explicit call to actions and concentrate on conversion.

A simple, predictable information architecture

At any moment, a crewmember can pinch the display: This common zoom gesture maps to a high-level Timelines Overview. From there, they can see what other crewmembers are doing now and in the near future.

All crewmembers and ISS mission roles are listed in the Overview. Each one is associated to their immediate events, making it easy to see what everybody's doing at a glance.

Tapping any role row will simply go back to the main Timeline view, loaded with the events of the selected role. Let's see what's in store for the MCC Coordinator today!

Scrolling events by dragging left allows the crewmember to peek further ahead if need be.

The information is a summary overview of the current activities of the Company and does not purport to be all inclusive or to contain all the information that a prospective investor may require in evaluating a possible investment. This presentation is for general information purposes and is not intended to be and does not constitute a prospectus, product disclosure statement, pathfinder document or other disclosure document for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) and has not been, and is not required to be, lodged with the Australian Securities & Investments Commission. It is to be read in conjunction with the Company's disclosures lodged with the Australian Securities Exchange, including the Company's full year results lodged with the Australian Securities Exchange on 16 February 2015.

The material contained in this presentation is not, and should not be considered as, financial product or investment advice. This presentation is not (and nothing in it should be construed as) an offer, invitation, solicitation or recommendation with respect to the subscription for, purchase or sale of any security in any jurisdiction, and neither this document nor anything in it shall form the basis of any contract or commitment. This presentation is not intended to be relied upon as advice to investors or potential investors and does not take into account the investment objectives, financial situation or needs of any particular investor which need to be considered, with or without professional advice, when deciding whether or not an investment is appropriate.

This presentation contains information as to past performance of the Company. Such information is given for illustrative purposes only, and is not – and should not be relied upon as – an indication of future performance of the Company. The historical information in this presentation is, or is based upon, information contained in previous announcements made by the Company to the market.

Forward looking statements

This document contains certain "forward-looking statements". The words "anticipate", "believe", "expect", "project", "forecast", "estimate", "outlook", "upside", "likely", "intend", "should", "could", "may", "target", "plan" and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Indications of, and guidance on, future earnings and financial position and performance, including Freelancer's FY15 outlook, are also forward-looking statements, as are statements regarding Freelancer's plans and strategies and the development of the market.

Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond the control of Freelancer, which may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements.

Freelancer cannot give any assurance or guarantee that the assumptions upon which management based its forward-looking statements will prove to be correct or exhaustive beyond the date of its making, or that Freelancer's business and operations will not be affected by other factors not currently foreseeable by management or beyond its control. Such forward-looking statements only speak as at the date of this announcement and Freelancer assumes no obligation to update such information. The release, publication or distribution of this presentation in jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted by law. Any failure to comply with such restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws.

Non-IFRS information

This presentation includes certain financial measures that are not recognised under Australian Accounting Standards (AAS) or International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Such non-IFRS financial measures do not have a standardised meaning prescribed by AAS or IFRS and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other entities, and should not be construed as an alternative to other financial measures determined in accordance with AAS or IFRS. The information is presented to assist in making appropriate comparisons with prior periods and to assess the operating performance of the business. Freelancer uses these measures to assess the performance of the business and believes that information is useful to investors. Gross Payment Volume, EBITDA, and EBIT have not been audited or reviewed. Recipients are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any non-IFRS financial measures included in this presentation.
