

Immuron Receives $1.47M R&D Tax Concession Refund

4 February 2016, Melbourne, Australia: Immuron Limited (ASX:IMC) is pleased to announce that the Company has received a Research and Development Tax Concession Incentive cash refund of $1,469,763 for the 2015 Financial Year as part of the Australian Government's Research and Development Incentive Program.

This refund reflects the Company's $3.3M investment in Research and Development expenditure during the 2015 Financial Year on its various R&D programs surrounding its Travelan, Protectyn, NASH, ASH, and C. Difficile development programs.

Immuron CEO Mr Thomas Liquard commented:

"It's fantastic that the Australian Government has programs such as the Research and Development Tax Concession Incentive refund to assist early biotechnology companies fund their ongoing research and development pipelines and advance promising programs.

These programs create jobs for many Australians who are not only directly involved in the biotechnology industry but also for those working in supporting industries, which benefits the whole Australian economy."
