Dear Sir / Madam,

FINAL DETERMINATIONS FOR CITIPOWER AND POWERCOR
DELAYED TO END OF MAY 2016

The Australian Energy Regulator (AER) announced today that it has decided to change the release dates of the Final Determinations for the five Victorian electricity distribution businesses and three gas service providers. This includes CitiPower and Powercor (together known as Victoria Power Networks (VPN)) in which Spark Infrastructure holds 49% interests.

The Final Determinations, which were previously due at the end of April 2016, are now expected to be published by the end of May 2016.

As previously indicated, Spark Infrastructure will conduct a review of distribution guidance following receipt of VPN's Final Determinations, now due at the end of May 2016, and finalisation of associated business planning processes.

Yours faithfully,
