LMW ANNOUNCES CHRIS COONAN AS NEW CEO

LMW is delighted to announce the appointment of Chris Coonan as its CEO, effective 13 April 2016.

Chris has been working with the company since 2003 and has been a key member of LMW's executive team as National Residential Director. Chris is across all aspects of the business including previous experience working as a commercial valuer.

Announcing Chris's appointment, LMW Chairman Glen White said, "Chris is an exceptional leader and has been a central figure in building the very successful residential business. Chris has a proven track record with staff management and innovation along with a collaborative leadership style. He has our full confidence in continuing to lead the company's growth."

Reflecting on his appointment, Chris said, "I am honoured to have been selected for the role and look forward to capitalising on the growth and maintaining the strong momentum we have achieved in line with our Towards Excellence business plan. In my new role I am looking forward to working with all our people to continue to create new and exciting opportunities for all."
