Foreign Currency Dividend Payments

ANZ will pay its proposed 2016 Interim Dividend in three different currencies, namely Australian Dollars, Pounds Sterling and New Zealand Dollars (“the designated currencies”).

In the absence of the shareholder providing banking instructions in another designated currency to ANZ’s Share Registrar by no later than 5:00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time) on 11 May 2016, the following will apply:

- (i) ANZ’s proposed 2016 Interim Dividend payable to participating ANZ ordinary shareholders with a registered address in the United Kingdom (including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) or New Zealand will be converted to their local currency at an exchange rate calculated on 13 May 2016 and will be payable in that currency only;
- (ii) cash entitlements in connection with the proposed 2016 Interim Dividend will be payable to all other participating shareholders in Australian Dollars.

If a shareholder wishes to alter the currency in which they receive their 2016 Interim Dividend entitlement, the shareholder must complete and return an appropriate Direct Credit form no later than 5:00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time) on 11 May 2016. Direct Credit forms received after this time will not be effective to alter the currency of the entitlement in respect of the 2016 Interim Dividend.
