Article 92 of the Company's Articles of Association provides, inter alia, that a director must retire from office or seek re-election by no later than the third annual general meeting following his or her appointment or election. Both Ir Che Mohamed Hussein Bin Mohamed Shariff and Mr Dominic Lim Kian Gam were last elected as directors at the first annual general meeting held on 29 July 2013. Therefore, in accordance with Article 92 of the Company's Articles of Association, they now seek re-election as directors.

The qualifications and business experiences of Ir Che Mohamed Hussein Bin Mohamed Shariff and Mr Dominic Lim Kian Gam are set out in the Annual Report.

3. Resolution 4

Singapore law requires that directors' fees be approved by shareholders.

The total number of shares which the directors may issue pursuant to this mandate can not exceed 50% of the Company's existing share capital at the date the resolution is passed.

This proposed resolution does not seek shareholders' approval to issue shares to related parties such as directors of the Company and their associates.

A CDI-holder who is entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting may appoint up to two proxies to attend and vote on his or her behalf. If a CDI-holder appoints two proxies, the appointment of the proxies may specify the proportion or the number of that shareholder's votes that each proxy may exercise. If the appointment does not so specify, each proxy may exercise half of the votes. Fractions of votes will be disregarded. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company.

A proxy may decide whether to vote on any motion, except where the proxy is required by law or the constitution to vote, or abstain from voting, in their capacity as proxy. If a proxy is directed how to vote on an item of business, the proxy may vote on that item only in accordance with the direction. If a proxy is not directed how to vote on an item of business, the proxy may vote as he or she thinks fit.

If a shareholder appoints the chairperson of the meeting as the shareholder's proxy and does not specify how the chairperson is to vote on an item of business, the chairperson will vote, as proxy for that shareholder, in favour of that item on a poll.
