Escrow.com headquarters moves to San Francisco

Tuesday, 12th July 2016 - Freelancer Limited (ASX:FLN), the world's largest freelancing and crowdsourcing marketplace by total number of users and posted jobs, advises that it is moving the Escrow.com headquarters from Southern California to San Francisco.

Escrow.com was founded in 1999 by Fidelity National Financial Inc., a Fortune 500 Company, with original investment from Softbank, The Chase Manhattan Group, Pacific Century Cyberworks (PCCW), VerticalNet, Inc., Micro General Corporation & Madison Securities, and has grown to be the world's largest online escrow company. In 2015, Escrow.com was acquired by Freelancer Limited.

Located downtown in San Francisco at 180 Montgomery, the new office will join the Company's other international offices in London, Vancouver, Buenos Aires and Manila, alongside the head office in Sydney.

"San Francisco is the logical best location for the headquarters for Escrow.com, being closest to partners, as well as allowing for further expansion in customer support, payments and major account management", said Matt Barrie, Chief Executive Officer and Executive Chairman of Freelancer Limited.

Escrow.com's head office relocation to San Francisco is subject to approval by the Commissioner of Business Oversight in California, and following this approval Escrow.com will close its current office in Southern California.
