¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2016 (ASX: ARD)

This Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 8 August 2016 and has been approved by the Board of Argent Minerals Limited ('the Company'), on 9 August 2016. A copy can be found on the Company's website at www.argentminerals.com.au.

This statement outlines the main Corporate Governance practices that were in place throughout the financial year, which comply with the Australian Stock Exchange ('ASX') Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations ('Recommendations'), unless otherwise stated.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of the Company ('the Board') is committed to maintaining the highest standards of Corporate Governance. Corporate Governance is about having a set of core values and behaviours that underpin the Company's activities and ensure transparency, fair dealing and protection of the interests of stakeholders.

The Board of Directors supports the Recommendations developed by the ASX Corporate Governance Council ('Council'). Whilst the Company's practices are largely consistent with the Council's guidelines, the Board considers that the implementation of some Recommendations are not appropriate having regard to the nature and scale of the Company's activities and size of the Board. The Board uses its best endeavours to ensure exceptions to the Council's guidelines do not have a negative impact on the Company and the best interests of shareholders as a whole. When the Company is not able to implement one of the Council's Recommendations the Company applies the 'if not, why not' explanation approach by applying practices in accordance with the spirit of the relevant principle.

The following discussion outlines the ASX Corporate Governance Council's eight principles and associated recommendations and the extent to which the Company complies with those recommendations.

Details of all of the Council's Recommendations can be found on the ASX website at www.asx.com.au under the Corporate Governance Section.

(a)	the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors;	The Board considers Stephen Gemell, Peter Nightingale and Peter Michael to be independent directors.	Yes

(b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the directors, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and	 The Board distinguishes between the concept of independence, and the issues of conflict of interest or material personal interests which may arise from time to time. Wherever there is an actual or potential conflict of interest or material personal interest, the Board's policies and procedures ensure that: the interest is fully disclosed and the disclosure is recorded in the Board minutes; the relevant director is excluded from all considerations of the matter by the Board; and the relevant director does not receive any segment of the Board papers or other documents in which there is any reference to the matter. 	Yes
(c) the length of service of each director.	The name, skills and experience of the directors in office at the date of this Statement, and the period of office of each director, are set out in the Annual Report.	Yes
2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors	The Company's Corporate Governance Plan outlines that the majority of the Board will be comprised of non-executive directors, and where practical, at least 50% of the Board will be independent, 66% of the Board is deemed independent. The current Board structure presently consists of a managing director, a non- executive chairman and two non-executive directors. The Board believes that each of the Directors can make, and do make, quality and independent judgements in the best interests of the Company. Any Director who has a conflict of interest in relation to a particular item of business must declare their conflict and abstain from voting or participating in Board deliberations to which a conflict of interest relates.	Yes
2.5 the chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Mr Stephen Gemell is the Chairman and is an independent director. The Company's Corporate Governance Plan provides that the Chairman, where practical, should be a non-executive Director.	Yes

(b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement.	The Board as a whole is able to address the governance aspects of the full scope of the Company's activities and to ensure that it adheres to appropriate ethical standards. In particular, the full Board considers those matters that would usually be the responsibility of an audit committee and a nomination committee. The Board considers that, at this stage, no efficiencies or other benefits would be gained by establishing a separate audit committee.	Yes
4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The Board seeks the relevant assurance from the chief executive officer and chief financial officer (or their equivalents) at the relevant time.	Yes
4.3 A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	The senior engagement partner (or his representative) of the Company's external auditor, KPMG, will attend the Company's annual general meeting and is available to answer questions from shareholders about the audit. The Chairman advises the shareholders of	Yes

6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Strategy, contained in Schedule 11 of the Company's Corporate Governance Plan, which aims to ensure that the shareholders of the Company are informed of all major developments affecting the Company's state of affairs.	Yes
6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Shareholders are able to send and receive communications to/from Argent Minerals electronically.	Yes
6.3 A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Shareholders are encouraged to participate in shareholder meetings to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategies and goals. Important issues are presented to shareholders as separate resolutions. Shareholders who are unable to attend a shareholder meeting may vote by appointing a proxy using the form included with the Notice of Meeting. Further, shareholders are also invited to submit questions in advance of the shareholder meeting so that the Company can ensure those issues are addressed at the meeting.	Yes
 6.4 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically. 6.5 	Shareholders have the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its share registry. remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.
8.2 A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	 Executive Directors remuneration packages may comprise of: fixed salary; performance based bonuses; participation in any share/option scheme; and, statutory superannuation. Independent non-executive directors receive fixed directors fees only, and do not participate in any performance-based remuneration. Fixed director's fees may be paid in the form of cash, share options or a combination of both. Share options are issued on similar terms to previous issues by the entity and are considered to be in lieu of cash, not based on performance of the entity. Full remuneration disclosure, including superannuation entitlements have been included in the Director's Report and will be provided by the Company in its future annual reports. 	Yes
8.3 A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should:
 (i) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and 	The Board, in lieu of the Remuneration Committee, is responsible for reviewing recommendations with respects to issues under the Company's Employee Share Plan. Directors approve issues or granted under the plans only after being satisfied that this is in accordance with the terms of shareholders' approval.	Yes
(ii) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Participants in the scheme must not enter into any transaction which would have the effect of hedging or otherwise transferring to any other person the risk of any fluctuation in the value of any unvested equity interest.	Yes
