Victorian Training Business update

Ashley Services Group Limited (ASX: ASH) advise that further to its announcement on 8 November 2016, that Senior Management and Directors will be meeting with the Victorian Department of Education and Training ('the Department') on 10 November 2016 concerning its subsidiary, ASH Pty Limited ('the RTO') to resolve the following matters:

- The Department advising that it reasonably suspects that the RTO may have breached a clause in its 2014-16 VET Funding Contract (Non -TAFE) and it is withholding payments to the RTO.
- The Department directing the RTO to suspend the enrolment of Eligible individuals and commencement of Eligible individuals who have enrolled but not yet commenced training by the RTO.

ASH will continue to keep the market informed.
