1. INTRODUCTION

This Cleansing Notice has been prepared by Advanced Braking Technology Limited (Company) for the purposes of section 708A(12C)(e) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) (as inserted by ASIC Corporations (Sale Offers: Securities Issued On Conversion of Convertible Notes) Instrument 2016/82). Issuing this Cleansing Notice enables the fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of the Company (Shares) issued on the conversion of the convertible security issued by the Company on the terms described below to be on-sold to retail investors without further disclosure.

This Cleansing Notice is important and should be read in its entirety.

2. BACKGROUND AND CONTENTS OF CLEANSING NOTICE

The Company wishes to inform the market that it has entered into an agreement to raise a total of $1.250 million by the offer (Offer) of a total of 156,250,000 unsecured convertible notes (Convertible Notes).

The Offer was made to investors who are sophisticated, experienced or professional investors for the purposes of section 708 of the Corporations Act.

The terms of the Convertible Notes are set out in a convertible note subscription agreement (Subscription Agreement) executed by the Company in favour of the subscribing noteholders (Noteholders), and are summarised in Section 4 below.

The Convertible Notes bear interest at the rate of 9% per annum payable to the Noteholders every three month in arrears and have a maturity date of two years from their issue date (Maturity Date).

The Company's directors (Directors) consider that the raising of capital by the issue of the Convertible Notes is in the best interests of the Company as it will secure, on acceptable terms, funding that is likely to be required by the Company for the continued development and growth of its business.

4 RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO THE CONVERTIBLE NOTES

A summary of the key terms of the Convertible Notes are set out at attachment A.

5 RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SHARES ISSUED ON CONVERSION OF THE CONVERTIBLE SECURITY

The Shares to be issued to the Noteholders on the conversion of the Convertible Notes will rank equally in all respects with all of the Company's existing Shares. The rights attaching to Shares, including the new Shares to be issued to the Noteholders on the conversion of the Convertible Notes, are set out in the Company's constitution (Constitution) and, in certain circumstances, regulated by the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and the general law.

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are set out in the Constitution, a copy of which can be inspected, free of charge, at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

The following is a broad summary of the rights, privileges and restrictions attaching to all Shares. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of shareholders:

Voting

Every holder of Shares present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative at a meeting of shareholders has one vote on a vote taken by a show of hands and, on a poll, one vote for every fully paid Share held by him or her.

Dividends

The Directors may declare a dividend is payable and fix the amount and the time for and method of payment.

All fully paid Shares on which any dividend is declared or paid, are entitled to participate in that dividend equally.

Transfer of Shares

Shares may be transferred, and transfers may be registered, in any manner required or permitted by the ASX Listing Rules. The Company must comply with and give effect to those rules and it may, in accordance with those rules, decline to issue certificates for holdings of Shares.

Meetings and notice

Each shareholder is entitled to receive notice of and to attend general meetings of the Company and to receive all notices required to be sent to shareholders under the Constitution.

Issue of further Shares

The Directors may allot, issue or grant options in respect of, further Shares on such terms and conditions as they see fit subject to compliance with the Corporation Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

Variation of rights

If at any time the Share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class, may be varied or cancelled with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company (which must be passed by at least 75% of shareholders present and voting at a general meeting) and with either:

- (a) the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the issued Shares of that class, or
- (b) by a special resolution passed at a meeting of the holders of the Shares of that class (which must be passed by at least 75% of class members present and voting at the meeting).

Non-marketable parcels

The Constitution contains procedures to enable the Company to seek to sell non-marketable parcels on Shares on behalf of shareholders, unless the shareholder requests otherwise.

6 THE COMPANY IS A "DISCLOSING ENTITY"

The Company is a "disclosing entity" under the Corporations Act and, accordingly, is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations under both the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules.

These obligations require the Company to notify ASX of information about specific events and matters as they arise. In particular, the Company has an obligation under ASX Listing Rule 3.1 and section 674 of the Corporations Act 2001 (subject to certain limited exceptions) to notify the ASX immediately once it is or becomes aware of information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Shares.

The Company is also required to prepare and lodge with ASIC yearly and half-yearly financial statements accompanied by a Directors' statement and report, and an audit report or review.
