RNY Property Trust (ASX:RNY) – Board Committee advises unitholders to take no action on Aurora’s offer

RNY Australia Management Limited (RAML) as responsible entity of RNY Property Trust (the Trust) reports that the RAML Board Committee is advising RNY unitholders to TAKE NO ACTION in response to Aurora’s unsolicited takeover offer for RNY units following the dispatch of the Aurora Bidder Statement on 11 September 2017.

RNY’s Target Statement will be distributed to unitholders by 27 September 2017 and the RAML Board Committee has advised unitholders that pending the release of the Target’s Statement they should take no action in relation to Aurora’s offer.

The Trust is managed by RAML, an Australian licensed responsible entity which is an affiliate of RXR Realty. Other affiliates of RXR serve as property manager, leasing agent, asset manager, and construction manager and provide other services to the properties in the Trust portfolio. RXR is one of the New York Tri-State area’s leading real estate companies, specializing in the acquisition, leasing, financing, property and asset management, design and development, and construction of commercial properties.

Certain statement herein relate to the Trust's future performance ("forward looking statements"). Although RAML believes such statements are based on reasonable assumptions, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of results and no assurance can be given that the expected results will be delivered. Such forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, trends and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expected. Among those risks, trends and uncertainties are the general economic climate, including the conditions affecting industries in which principal tenants compete; financial condition of tenants; changes in the supply of and demand for office properties in the New York Tri-State area; changes in interest rate levels and changes in credit ratings and changes in the cost of and access to capital.
