Macquarie Government achieves ‘protected’ cloud accreditation for government cloud

Macquarie Telecom Group Limited (ASX: MAQ) (the Company) advises that further to the Company's announcement on 30 August 2017 regarding the additional investment in its government business in Canberra, Macquarie Government has now been accredited to provide “PROTECTED” cloud computing services to Australian Government Agencies.

It is the highest security level certification for cloud services approved by the Australian Signals Directorate (ASD) on its Certified Cloud Services List (CCSL).
