Dear Anjuli

Price and Volume Query

I refer to your letter of 13 October 2017 regarding the change in the Company's share price and increase in volume of trading and advise:

1. & 2. The Company is not aware of any material information concerning its activities that has not already been announced and that could be an explanation for the recent trading in the shares of the Company. The Company notes that it has, in the normal course of business, recently applied for an exploration licence in the Gascoyne region and is currently assessing the available data before a decision to retain the ground whilst the grant of the licence is pending. Depending on the information compiled, the Company will make an announcement on the prospectivity of the tenement if the decision is made to continue with the application. The Company is also in preliminary discussions regarding a potential capital raising but no decision has been made to proceed.
3. The Company is not aware of any other explanations for the recent trading in the securities of the Company.
4. The Company confirms that it is in compliance with the listing rules and, in particular, listing rule 3.1.
5. The Company confirms that this response has been authorised and approved in accordance with its published continuous disclosure policy.

Yours sincerely

Phillip MacLeod
Company Secretary

Dear Mr MacLeod

ARUMA RESOURCES LIMITED (“AAJ”) PRICE AND VOLUME QUERY

We note the change in the price of AAJ’s securities from a close of $0.011 on 12 October 2017 to an intraday high of $0.015 at the time of writing today 13 October 2017.

We also note the significant increase in the volume of AAJ’s securities traded today.

In light of this, ASX asks AAJ to respond separately to each of the following questions and requests for information:

1. Is AAJ aware of any information concerning it that has not been announced to the market which, if known by some in the market, could explain the recent trading in its securities?
2. If the answer to question 1 is “yes”:
 - a) Is AAJ relying on Listing Rule 3.1A not to announce that information under Listing Rule 3.1?

Please note that the recent trading in AAJ’s securities would suggest to ASX that such information may have ceased to be confidential and therefore AAJ may no longer be able to rely on Listing Rule 3.1A. Accordingly, if the answer to this question is “yes”, you need to contact us immediately to discuss the situation.
 - b) Can an announcement be made immediately?

Please note, if the answer to this question is “no”, you need to contact us immediately to discuss requesting a trading halt (see below).
 - c) If an announcement cannot be made immediately, why not and when is it expected that an announcement will be made?
3. If the answer to question 1 is “no”, is there any other explanation that AAJ may have for the recent trading in its securities?
4. Please confirm that AAJ is in compliance with the Listing Rules and, in particular, Listing Rule 3.1.

5. Please confirm that AAJ's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved in accordance with its published continuous disclosure policy or otherwise by its board or an officer of AAJ with delegated authority from the board to respond to ASX on disclosure matters.

When and where to send your response

This request is made under, and in accordance with, Listing Rule 18.7. Your response is required as soon as reasonably possible and, in any event, by not later than 1.30 pm WST today, 13 October 2017. If we do not have your response by then, ASX will have no choice but to consider suspending trading in AAJ's securities under Listing Rule 17.3.

You should note that if the information requested by this letter is information required to be given to ASX under Listing Rule 3.1 and it does not fall within the exceptions mentioned in Listing Rule 3.1A, AAJ's obligation is to disclose the information "immediately". This may require the information to be disclosed before the deadline set out in the previous paragraph.

ASX reserves the right to release a copy of this letter and your response on the ASX Market Announcements Platform under Listing Rule 18.7A. Accordingly, your response should be in a form suitable for release to the market.

Your response should be sent to me by e-mail at anjuli.sinniah@asx.com.au and tradinghaltspert@asx.com.au. It should not be sent directly to the ASX Market Announcements Office. This is to allow me to review your response to confirm that it is in a form appropriate for release to the market, before it is published on the ASX Market Announcements Platform.

Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.1A

Listing Rule 3.1 requires a listed entity to give ASX immediately any information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the entity's securities. Exceptions to this requirement are set out in Listing Rule 3.1A.

In responding to this letter, you should have regard to AAJ's obligations under Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.1A and also to Guidance Note 8 Continuous Disclosure: Listing Rules 3.1 – 3.1B.

It should be noted that AAJ's obligation to disclose information under Listing Rule 3.1 is not confined to, nor is it necessarily satisfied by, answering the questions set out in this letter.

Trading halt

If you are unable to respond to this letter by the time specified above, or if the answer to question 1 is "yes" and an announcement cannot be made immediately, you should discuss with us whether it is appropriate to request a trading halt in AAJ's securities under Listing Rule 17.1.

If you wish a trading halt, you must tell us:

- the reasons for the trading halt;
- how long you want the trading halt to last;
- the event you expect to happen that will end the trading halt;
- that you are not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted; and
- any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt, or that we ask for.

We may require the request for a trading halt to be in writing. The trading halt cannot extend past the commencement of normal trading on the second day after the day on which it is granted.

You can find further information about trading halts in Guidance Note 16 Trading Halts & Voluntary Suspensions.

If you have any queries or concerns about any of the above, please contact me immediately.

Yours sincerely
