Dear Martin,

For dissemination to the market:

CBA Instalment Warrants – IYE, IYF, IYG Series – Reset Date and Early Maturity

Commonwealth Bank of Australia (Commonwealth Bank) advises that Instalment Warrants in the IYE, IYF and IYG Series are due to be reset on 18 June 2019 (the 'Reset Date').

Reset Date

The Instalment Warrants listed in Table A below will be reset on 18 June 2019. On this Reset Date, Holders will drawdown an amount equal to the new Interest Amount under the Loan (which increases the Loan Amount by the new Interest Amount) and apply that amount to pay to Commonwealth Bank the new Interest Amount for the Interest Period to the next Reset Date. The new Interest Amount drawn down will be added to the Loan Amount. Holders will not be required to make any additional payments from their own funds in relation to the reset.

Commonwealth Bank will make another announcement confirming the Interest Amount and the new Loan Amount after the Reset Date.

Upon Early Maturity, Holders can choose to:

- sell the Instalment Warrants up to the close of normal trading on the ASX on the Early Maturity Date;
- give a valid Early maturity Completion Notice and make the Completion Payment to receive full ownership of the Underlying Securities;
- do nothing, and receive the Assessed Value Payment.

Holders of these Instalment Warrants were sent information regarding these options on 20 May 2019.
